

I do not support LPFM stations if they are going to take priority over current local FM translators. I value national services such as K-Love that currently use these FM translators.

1. K-Love in particular provides valuable family christian programming which I believe is vital to our community.

2. It is in the best interest of our communities across America to keep K-Love on the air it serves to strengthen families.